CUBANS WILL DISBAND

General Garcia Scores a Victory at the Assembly.

FULL TEXT OF THE PROGRAM

Troops to Receive Certificates of Pay Due Them and to Return to the Fields While the General Negotiates a Loan.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 23.—Cubans here have received word from Santa Cruz that General Garcia has scored a victory in the convention there.

He achieved this against a strong opposition by the extremist faction. General Garcia's program is to give the insurgent troops in the eastern provinces certificates of the dates of their service and the amount of pay due them and send them back to their plantations. Another step will be the dissolution of the provisional government and the suppression of the office of commander-in-chief.

General Garcia himself will head a commission to the United States to negotiate a loan intended for the payment of the Cuban soldiers.

LONG MESSAGES

Are Received Daily From Judge Day on Proceedings at Paris.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The intimation conveyed by the American commissioners to the Spanish commissioners at Monday's session of the peace conference in Paris, that the position of the United States with respect to Cuba and the Cuban debt could not be regarded as subject to change and that consequently the American commissioners were ready to proceed with the consideration of other heads under the protocol, the Paris advices show had the desired effect.

The one concession as to Cuba that our commissioners will make will be to guarantee for the United States that life and property shall be secure there.

This responsibility the United States will assume only until such time as a stable government shall be formed and operative in Cuba. There will be no perpetual guarantee on this score. Undue significance has been attached to the dispatch of a special messenger from Washington to the president at Philadelphia.

Almost every day a long report has come by cable from Judge Day, president of the American commissioners at Paris, telling what had been accomplished and what the American commissioners propose to do at the next meeting.

The president has gone over these reports very carefully in company with Secretary Hay and some times with military or naval experts if their advice seemed to be necessary.

Wednesday's report was very long, and to have reduced it to cipher code for the purpose of telegraphing it to Philadelphia would have consumed more time and been less satisfactory in results than the services of a messenger.

As a vital stage had been reached, it was thought advisable not to delay till the president's return, and so Assistant Secretary Cridler's confidential clerk was sent to Philadelphia with the daily report.

It is expected that the commissioners will now take up the subject of the Philippines. The American commissioners have given this subject much attention, but so far it has never appeared before the joint commission save in the shape of one spasmodic effort made by the Spaniards at the very beginning of the sessions to have the United States abandon Manila as a precedent to further negotiations on the subject of the Philippines.

The American commissioners, among other things, have been looking into the subject of the Philippine debt, about which there is much ignorance at this end of the line.

It is unlikely that the same rule will be applied to that debt as was insisted upon relative to the Cuban debt. In other words, if the United States annexes the Philippines, which seems now to be the logical outcome of the situation, it might be reasonably contended that at least so much of the debt as represented moneys expended for the improvement of the islands should pass to the United States with the title.

Postal Service in Manila.

Washington, Oct. 23.—United States Postal Agent Vallie at Manila has submitted a report to the postoffice department on the postal operations there. He says that the largest business houses report the mail facilities much better than at any time under Spanish rule, and speaks in glowing terms of the island, expressing the hope that the United States will retain it.

Off For Georgia.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 23.—Brigadier General Joseph P. Sanger, accompanied by his staff, left for Columbus, Ga. Brigadier Generals Wiley and Andrews also left. They will select camp sites for the troops now at Camp Hamilton. General Sanger will continue in command of the division until the arrival of Major General Bates.

Indiana Soldier Stabbed.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 23.—W. S. Snyder, company M, One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana, is lying seriously, if not mortally wounded as the result of a stab from a knife in the hands of Louis Gates, his tent mate. It was the result of a quarrel.

Telegraph in Santiago.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Lieutenant Colonel Robert C. Craig, signal corps, has been ordered from Washington to Santiago, Guantanamo, Baracoa and Sagua de Janamo, Cuba, to report on the extent and conditions of the telegraph lines in the department of Santiago, the availability of timber supplies in the country for their reconstruction and such other points connected with their reconstruction for military purposes, as he may think essential.

SOME POSSIBILITIES.

Renewal of Hostilities May Result If Some One Doesn't Yield.

Paris, Oct. 23.—After noting that the session of the peace commissions did not arrive at any solution regarding the Cuban debt, the Gaulois says:

"The situation is extremely strained, owing to the increasingly aggressive attitude of the Americans, and it is even feared that if the Spaniards should not decide to give way on all points, the negotiations will be broken off in the course of the next meeting. "It seems unquestionable that the near approach of the American elections plays a considerable role in the attitude of the Spanish delegates, who have supposed that gaining time would obtain better terms from their conquerors, while just the opposite is happening."

Continuing, the Gaulois intimates that if the Americans continue to show themselves intractable towards the Spaniards, a renewal of hostilities may result, especially if the Spaniards declare that they have arrived at the extreme limits of honorable concession.

Camp at Honolulu.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The report of General Merriam, commanding the Department of the Pacific, regarding the facilities for a camp at Honolulu, has been received at the war department. It is not favorable. He says the ground on the higher levels is covered with rocks, while the lowlands and valleys are swampy, the lands being used chiefly for rice cultivation. There are no good drill grounds, and he advises that as few troops as possible be sent to Honolulu.

General Wood's Mission.

Santiago, Cuba, Oct. 23.—General Wood left here on board the dispatch boat Histe, accompanied by his aid-de-camp and clerical staff, for the purpose of visiting Manzanillo and to instruct Colonel Pettit to arrange the conduct of the civil business there. The French consul has written to General Wood protesting strongly against the order prohibiting the landing of negroes from Haiti. General Wood replied that he could not allow any more paupers here.

Sad Suicide of a Soldier.

New York, Oct. 23.—Philip R. N. Hildreth, 26, a member of troop A, New York volunteers, committed suicide while delirious from fever contracted in Porto Rico. He shot himself through the head with his army revolver. Hildreth was cashier for the shipping export house of William R. Grace & Company. His father owns the big West End hotel at Long Branch.

Fourth Ohio About to Sail.

Boston, Oct. 23.—The United States transport Mississippi, from Porto Rico, having on board the Sixth regiment, Massachusetts volunteers, has arrived.

Captain Foraker Approving.

Havana, Oct. 23.—Captain Foraker of the United States military commission is out of danger and doing splendidly.

TO NAME NEW CABINET

At the Urgent Request of the President of France.

COMMISSION OF M. DUPUY.

Sensational Testimony Offered In the Court of Cassation During the Hearing of Dreyfus Petition For a New Trial.

Paris, Oct. 23.—President Faure asked M. Dupuy to form a cabinet in succession to the Brisson ministry, which resigned on Tuesday.

The cabinet will probably be composed as follows: M. Dupuy, premier and minister of the interior; M. De Freycinet, minister of war; M. Constans, minister of justice; M. Delcasse, minister of foreign affairs; M. Ribot, minister of finance; M. Bourgeois, minister of public instruction.

M. Dupuy, who was interviewed as he was leaving the Elysee, said the question of the Dreyfus revision was purely judicial, adding: "No honest politician will decline to accept the decision which shall be given."

In the court of cassation great stress was laid by Reporter M. Bard on Colonel Picquart's letter of July 14, 1898, to the minister of justice, in which he gave seven principal arguments against the probability of guilt of Dreyfus, including the impossibility of Dreyfus procuring the plans of fortresses and projects for the movements of troops, undetected, whereas Major Esterhazy had free access thereto.

This letter also cites interviews which Colonel Picquart had with Generals Billot and Gonze, and says: "With the proof in my hands, I have established the innocence of Dreyfus." To this General Gonze replied, according to the letter to the minister of justice: "What is it to you if Dreyfus is on Devil's Island? 'He is innocent.' General Gonze—"You knew Mercier, (former minister of war) and Saussier, (former military governor of Paris) are mixed up in this affair. Do you wish to compromise them?"

The letter then continued that on leaving General Gonze, Colonel Picquart declared he was convinced of the innocence of Dreyfus and he proposed to fight the matter out and reveal what he knew. These statements upon the part of the reporter caused a sensation in court.

After further reference to Colonel Picquart's charges that the ministry of war and the general staff had tampered with documents and had manufactured evidence in the Dreyfus case, the hearing of the case was adjourned.

The belief is general that the court of cassation will pronounce neither for revision nor for annulment of the decision in the Dreyfus case as either course would entail awkward consequences. To avoid these it is expected the court will decide that as the affair now presents itself there has been no treason, and that therefore the condemnation pronounced upon Captain Dreyfus by the courtmartial cannot be upheld.

French Ambassador Visits Salisbury.

London, Oct. 23.—A cabinet council was held at the foreign office. All the members of the cabinet were present and the meeting lasted two hours. The French ambassador, Baron De Courcel, saw the Marquis of Salisbury immediately after the conclusion of the cabinet meeting.

A False Rumor.

Paris, Oct. 23.—A rumor circulated in London that President Faure has been assassinated was false.

Around the World on Wheels.

New York, Oct. 23.—H. Darwin McIlraith and wife of Chicago arrived here from Southampton, England. The McIlraiths started on a wheeling tour on Oct. 10, 1895. From Chicago they crossed the Rockies and on June 1 arrived in San Francisco. There they took a steamer for China. The couple rode through that country and then proceeded through Japan. Their route was afterward through Burma, India, Persia, Russia, Austro-Hungary, Germany, France and Great Britain. They intend to ride from this city to Chicago, and the start will be made in a day or two.

Crazed Over an Elopement.

Waldron, Ind., Oct. 23.—Ethel, the daughter of E. W. North, ran away to Covington, Ky., and was married to Albert Clark. The father followed, but was too late to prevent the wedding. He returned home and is now a raving maniac. He imagines that some one is burning his dwelling and stealing his child, and asks for a gun to shoot Clark.

Protectorate Over Egypt.

Paris, Oct. 23.—It is reported here that the British cabinet session decided to proclaim the protectorate of Great Britain over Egypt.

CURE FOR HOG CHOLERA.

Successful Experiments in the Use of a Serum.

Washington, Oct. 23.—During the past two years the department of agriculture has conducted a series of experiments in the use of a serum as a remedy for hogs affected by cholera or swine plague.

The experiments were conducted by Dr. D. E. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry, and the results were eminently satisfactory, proving that the dreaded disease can be successfully and inexpensively treated.

The loss suffered by the farmers of the United States annually from hog cholera aggregate an enormous sum. In Iowa alone, during 1896, it is estimated that the hog raisers lost through the ravages of the disease $15,000,000.

Summarizing the results of the experiments, Dr. Salmon said that 80 per cent of the hogs treated in droves have been saved, while in the droves affected with cholera and not given the serum treatment, quite 80 per cent were lost.

A Count In Trouble.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Count Leopold De Le Boritz of Bucharest, Roumania, was arrested on a charge of obtaining $3.75 by false pretenses. The count claims he is a victim of a clever confidence game in which it was intended that he would be swindled out of $6,000. As a result of his suspicions he caused the arrest of Marvin Victor Henshaw, teacher of dramatic art, and L. E. Henshaw and D. J. Hallinan, lawyers. Count De Le Boritz came to Chicago several days ago upon the solicitation, he says, of Ernest Salvatore, a playwright, and was introduced to Marvin Victor Henshaw. Henshaw, according to the count, agreed to stage the play if Boritz would furnish the money. The count did not have any ready money, but volunteered to send to his home in Roumania for the amount. Henshaw gave him $8.75 with which to pay for the cablegram, and when the money was not forthcoming a warrant was obtained for the nobleman's arrest.

Omaha, Oct. 23.—A discussion of the work of local councils in school work and other municipal matters, which eventually turned on to the difference between the National council and the general Federation of Women's clubs as respects their genius and scope took up much time of the National council of Women at the session here. Eventually a motion was carried directing the president, Mrs. May Wright Sewall of Indianapolis, to prepare a statement for the public which would clearly set forth the object of the National council without giving offence to the general Federation.

Signed the Agreement.

Pittsburg, Oct. 23.—The owners of the Albany and Umpire coal mines in the fourth pool signed the Chicago agreement and the mines were at once put in operation, giving employment to about 700 men. All the mines in the fourth pool are now working at the Chicago rate and the miners will turn their attention to the enforcement of the agreement in the fifth pool.

Light Catch of Seals.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 23.—The official statement of the sealing industry for the season just closed shows a total of but 27,865 skins for the fleet of 35 schooners, by far the lightest catch in years; also fewer schooners have been employed. The catch is divided thus: Asiatic coast, 440; British Columbia coast, 10,055; Bering sea, 17,370.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The award of the chief justice of Canada to whose arbitration was submitted the claim of Victor H. McCord against the government of Peru for damages sustained by reason of imprisonment during one of the revolutionary outbreaks there has been received at the state department. Louisville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Chief of Police Haager received notification that Charles G. Henning, who absconded from the Bank of Louisville with $3,200 several weeks ago, had been captured in London, England, by the Scotland Yard detectives. Extradition papers will be at once prepared and Henning brought back for trial.

BY THE FURY OF A GALE

A Freighter on Lake Ontario Is Sent to the Bottom.

ONLY ONE OF CREW SAVED.

Beaten For Hours by the Rolling of a Heavy Sea, a Steamer Springs a Leak and Founders With All on Board.

Sodus, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The three-masted schooner St. Peter of St. Vincent sank about five miles northwest of here on Lake Ontario, with all on board save Captain John Griffin, who was rescued in an unconscious condition.

The schooner showed signals of distress as she drifted past Charlotte. The people at Pultneyville sighted the St. Peter and immediately telegraphed to Sodus asking that help be offered. The tug Cornelia started for the rescue, but the great seas nearly swamped the boat, and the Cornelia was compelled to return to harbor.

Word was sent to Charlotte that the distressed vessel had been sighted near Pultneyville, and the tug Peter started with the life-saving crew. When within a mile of the St. Peter the crew on the schooner were horrified to see the ship sink. Captain Griffin was picked up in an unconscious condition. After spending half an hour looking for the other members of the ill-fated crew, the tug started for Sodus Point, where medical assistance was secured for the captain. He is still unconscious, but will recover. The wife of the captain was lost, also the mate, McLaren. Eight persons at least perished.

Olen Jolley and Jacob Verburg of this town were standing on the shore when St. Peter went down and declare that the boat was not more than half a mile from shore. It is thought that the St. Peter lost her rudder and that the heavy seas caused her to spring a leak.

Cygnets Pounded to Pieces.

Cleveland, Oct. 23.—A furious gale has swept over the lower lake region. During the night the wind reached a velocity of 50 miles an hour, accompanied by flurries of snow. So far as reported the only damage suffered to shipping was to the yacht Cygnets, which was anchored inside the Cleveland breakwater. Her anchor chains gave way and she was quickly dashed upon the beach, where she is being pounded to pieces by the waves. No person was aboard the yacht when she went ashore.

Struck on the Reef.

Havana, Oct. 23.—The schooner Kate, with a cargo of stores and medical supplies for the Cuban forces under General Jose Miquel Gomez at Sancti Spiritus, was overtaken by a storm. She struck on the San Carlos reefs. The crew and passengers escaped death by almost a miracle. They were buried in mud up to their waists for nine hours. Finally the steamer Paravona picked them up. The cargo was a total loss.

Vessels Damaged, but Safe.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—All of the lake craft that were out in Tuesday's storm have been accounted for. All are considerably damaged and the crews suffered great hardship, but there was no loss of life.

Situation Serene.

Washington, Oct. 23.—It is said at the state department that there is nothing disquieting in the situation at Havana. The evacuation commissioners are meeting at intervals to suit their convenience and the needs of the work in hand; Spanish troops are being shipped homeward, and the way is being cleared for the occupation of the island by the Americans by the end of the present year. The attitude of the insurgents is not a cause for apprehension.

New Mexico Should Be a State.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Governor Miguel A. Otero of New Mexico, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, vigorously renews his representations for the early admission of New Mexico to statehood and portrays the undeveloped resources of the territory awaiting capital. He estimates the total population of the territory now at 202,900, including an Indian population of 25,900.

UNFAIR AND UNJUST.

The Pittsburg Post goes after President McKinley and charges that he is decidedly unfair in his speeches in declaring, as he has done on several occasions, that "the Government has not been required since 1896 to borrow any money for its current obligations until the war with Spain, while its available balance October 1, 1898, was upward of $307,000,000, of which sum over $243,000,000 was in gold."

The facts are as has been frequently pointed out in the Post, that the McKinley administration in its early stages was saved from borrowing money, by a loan or otherwise, because the Cleveland administration left in the treasury a large surplus which it borrowed to maintain the gold standard. Altogether the Cleveland loans amounted to $293,000,000, including premiums. Cleveland bore the odium, while McKinley complacently, with smug and smirk, profits by it.

The total revenue receipts of the Government during the first eight months of the last fiscal year, or up to the time of voting extra expenditure for the national defense, amounted to $210,109,000, and the total disbursements to $265,521,000, leaving a revenue deficit of about $55,000,000. During all that time the new Dingley revenue law was in effect, and the only thing that saved the present administration from the necessity of borrowing to meet current expenses, as the Springfield (Mass.) Republican points out, was the opportune settlement, at a sacrifice to the Government, of the Union Pacific Railway debt to the United States and the accumulation in the treasury left by the preceding administration. Since the outbreak of the war we have of course been running behind still more rapidly and in spite of the war revenue act expenses have exceeded receipts by about $100,000,000. Thus during the present administration to date the revenue deficit has equaled $150,000,000, and continues to pile up. The boasted $307,000,000 in the treasury is what is left of bond borrowings aggregating $193,000,000 during the past four years, including the Cleveland bond issues and the $200,000,000 war loan.

No one was more vehement than President McKinley against the Cleveland bond issues, yet he has been reaping the benefit of them and claiming this benefit as the resulting virtue of his own administration. This is uncandid and unfair. No business man or banker but thoroughly understands it. It with other reasons has provoked the goldite Democrats to abandon in disgust and anger the McKinley outfit they put in place.

Voters should bear in mind that the days for special registration will be Monday, October 31st, and Tuesday and Wednesday, November 1st and 2nd. Town voters who from sickness or absence failed to register on the regular day would do well not to forget the special days named, and register, or they will lose their votes.

BRAVE KENTUCKIANS.

Monument to Those Who Fell on the Historic Field of Chickamauga—The Blue and Gray.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 26.—The work of erecting the single monument which will perpetuate at Chickamauga the memory of all Kentuckians, both Federal and Confederate, who sleep on that historic field, will begin next week. It will be finished in time for dedication on November 25.

The monument, which will cost $10,000, is erected by the State of Kentucky to her dead heroes, both those who wore the blue and those who wore the gray. The sentiment is beautifully expressed in the following inscription, which will appear on the monument:

Erected by the State of
 KENTUCKY
 In Memory of Her Sons Who Fought and Fell on This Field.

"As we are united in life and they united in death, let one monument perpetuate their deeds, and one people, forgetful of all asperities, forever hold in grateful remembrance all the glories of that terrible conflict, which made all men free and retained every star in the nation's flag."

It is only by a special dispensation that this inscription, which was taken from a speech delivered by Governor Bradley, was allowed to be placed on the monument. It is the rule that only the historical facts are allowed to be written. But the commissioners appointed to select the design, appreciating the beauties and the peculiar significance of this inscription, wrote to Secretary Alger for permission to have it placed on the monument, and their request was granted. There are three more of these bronze dies. The inscription on two others are as follows. One reads:

Confederate Organizations From
 KENTUCKY
 Engaged
 Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Ninth
 Infantry Regiments.
 Second and Third Cavalry Regiments
 Cobb's and Gravo's Batteries.

The other reads:

Union Organizations From
 KENTUCKY
 Engaged
 First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth,
 Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Fifteenth,
 Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Twenty-third
 Infantry Regiments
 and
 Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth
 Cavalry Regiments.

On the other die is the coat of arms of Kentucky.

The monument will be built entirely of Vermont granite, with the exception of the bronze work. The base will be composed of three blocks of granite, 13 by 10. On these will rest four small blocks of granite, which will support the large block, on the face of which the bronze dies will be placed. These tablets will be four feet by two feet two inches. On top of the projecting blocks will be the old-style mortars and cannon balls. Just above these will be the American flag and the Confederate flag, half furled together. These flags will be six feet three inches across.

There will also be Federal and Confederate devices on the sides of the caps. Then comes the shaft, on top of which is a sphere resting on four cannons, and on this sphere is the figure of Bellona, the Roman Goddess of War, with sword uplifted. The monument will be 43 feet 7 inches in height.

THE SECOND KENTUCKY.

The Soldier Boys Having a Hard Time These Days at Camp Hamilton.

[Lexington Herald.]

The soldiers of the Second are spending hard nights now. They wake up at night almost frozen, few having more than one blanket. It is cold with a stove and plenty of blankets and a floor, but without any of these it is severe indeed. However, they expect to be mustered out and paid off within a few days. Paymaster Weiss has no orders to pay them, but will probably receive orders soon from Washington. The work of examining is about completed. The officers will be taken last.

Tuesday night privates J. D. Runyon, Joseph Hawks, R. Collins and Thomas Nunnally, of Company D, had a little excitement, caused by the burning of the straw in their tent. They went to sleep with the candle burning and as a consequence the straw caught fire about midnight. The fire was extinguished, however, before much damage was done.

RULE AGAINST C. AND O.

Appellate Court Orders Company to Show Cause Why It Shall Not Be Punished for Contempt.

Mention has been made of the motion filed in the Court of Appeals early this week by Judge Wall for a rule against the C. and O. to show cause why the company shall not be punished for contempt for failure to comply with an injunction issued against it by the Mason Circuit Court.

The motion grew out of the suit of W. W. Ball and others against the M. and B. S. and the C. and O. roads for damages to their property resulting from the construction and operation of the road. The judgments amount to about $10,000, and the injunction was to force the C. and O. to pay the money.

Yesterday the Appellate Court sustained the motion and awarded a rule against the company, returnable November 5th.

BECAUSE we have the wanted sorts in ample variety. Careful selection has brought here the thoroughly good, dependable kinds and the opportunity to buy and save in the buying is presented here now.

BECAUSE 48c. will buy a Woman's Union Suit it has heretofore taken 75c. to purchase. Genuine worsted plated, silk finished and with pearl buttons. Warm, durable, comfortable, hygienic and so unlike the usual union suit offered for 50c. They're worth a look at least. Oneita make (buttons across chest) or open all the way down.

BECAUSE the women who know the most about underwear are the ones who buy from us. Other dealers offer fleeced drawers and vests for 25c. each, but they haven't the weight, the tailor fit, the quality of "Princess," our exclusive brand, and underwear judges know it.

BECAUSE We'll sell you for 18c. drawers and vests that will surprise you if you are a good judge of values. You couldn't better elsewhere for 25c. To convince yourself of these values we invite you to bring with you any of the above mentioned garments for which you've paid one-half more elsewhere. You know our motto "We don't fear comparison, we seek it."

TOBACCO GROWERS.

They Are Advised to Hold Their Crop by a Well Known Nicholas County Dealer.

[Carlisle Mercury.]

We had the pleasure of a talk a few days since with Mr. George W. Bramblett, the well-known tobacco dealer of this county, and knowing Mr. Bramblett's long connection with the tobacco trade we were exceedingly interested in his exposition of the market outlook. He has just returned from the city and was present when the first shipments of the 1898 crop were sold, and he is confirmed in the opinion that the raisers of tobacco will make a mistake if they rush their new crop upon the market in its present wet condition. The buyers are few on the market, and competition is nil, and the manufacturers are in position to buy what is offered on the breaks at their own prices. His opinion is that the new crop should be held for a few months yet at least, and that the re-dryers and manufacturers who have millions invested in machinery will be compelled to come to the country and pay fair prices.

Mr. Bramblett is of the opinion that the crop should bring at least an average of 8 cents if held off the market for a few months.

We commend these thoughts to the careful consideration of our readers, and request that our exchanges in the white burley district talk with their best posted tobacco raisers and dealers.

THE COURT'S OPINION

In Case of the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Company Against Wiggins From Nicholas County.

In reversing the above case the Court of Appeals says:

1. Section 157 of the Constitution prohibiting any county from becoming a stock holder in, or appropriating money to, or loaning credit to any association or corporation, contains no prohibition against the county's maintaining turnpike roads or purchasing same already constructed from the company building same.

2. Where a tax-payer seeks to enjoin the levy of a tax on behalf of a contract of purchase of a turnpike by the county on the grounds that the contract incurs an indebtedness in an amount exceeding in the year 1897, the income for that year as no election had been held to obtain the assent of the voters of the county as provided in Section 157 of the Constitution, he must show that such vote is necessary, that is, he must show what the indebtedness of the county is in the aggregate, or that payable in 1897, or what is the amount of the taxable property, and in the absence of any such allegation the plaintiff is not entitled to a judgment enjoining the levy proposed.

NEW PACKET LINE

Organized to Run the City of Pittsburg and Other Steamers—River News.

An exchange says: "A new Ohio river packet company has been organized, and Stephen H. Johnson has been elected the Superintendent, according to reports. The new line will comprise the steamers City of Pittsburg, Will J. Cummins, Lorena and the Avalon. The City of Pittsburg is the new $100,000 steamer that is being built at Marietta for Captain John M. Phillips. Captain Dana Scott and others. The Will J. Cummins is owned by Captain Mack Gamble, and ran in the Pittsburg and Cincinnati trade until the low water forced her to the lower Ohio trade. The Lorena plies between Pittsburg and Zanesville, and is owned by the Muskingum River Transportation Company, in which Messrs. Scott and Wallace are interested, and the Avalon is owned by Captain Sanford Kramer, of Parkersburg. According to the report, the City of Pittsburg will leave Pittsburg once a week for Louisville. The Will J. Cummins will leave Pittsburg for Cincinnati as heretofore, as the Lorena at Marietta. It is generally admitted that this will make one of the strongest packet lines on the upper Ohio river. All the steamers except the Cummins are new, and the big side-wheeler will give the line a steamer without an equal on this end of the Ohio."

NEW ENTERPRISE.

Mr. William Hakes' Novelty in the Way of a Business Vehicle.

Mr. William Hakes' elegant new vehicle made its first appearance on the street Thursday. It is a novelty in its line. It was turned out by the Dieterich & Son's carriage establishment, and is very handsomely and elegantly finished. It is a one-horse wagon, with low running gear, the bed being 9 feet long, 4 feet wide and 5.8 high; the wainscoting reaches 2 feet up on all sides, the balance being glass windows which can be raised or let down at will. The door is on the side, and is 24 inches from the ground, affording easy entrance or exit. Within, Mr. Hakes has every arrangement for promptly supplying his patrons with popcorn fritters, hot weinerwurst, oysters and waffles.

Mr. Hakes is now prepared to do business, rain or shine, and is certain to enjoy a largely increased patronage.

BROOM CORN PALACE.

UNIQUE STRUCTURE TO TYPIFY THE INDUSTRY OF CENTRAL ILLINOIS.

Was Built as the Chief Feature of the Street Fair in Arcola, Which is the Center of the World's Greatest Broom Corn District.

Douglas county in central Illinois is where the great bulk of the broom corn of the world is raised. In the center of this district is the lively little city of Arcola, and so it was the most appropriate thing that could have been conceived to make a broom corn palace as one of the chief attractions of the recent street fair held in Arcola just at the beginning of the broom corn harvest.

It was not a very big palace, being only 45 feet square on the base, but what it lacked in size it made up in beauty and uniqueness. So much was it admired that although the carnival is over the palace has been left undisturbed and people are still visiting Arcola to see the picturesque structure.

In the center of each side is a large arched doorway, while on each corner are minarets of beautiful design. Above the base building runs the tower, surmounted by a band stand.

In the interior the lower part of the palace is divided into convenient compartments and rooms, where different exhibits are placed. From the ground up, inside and outside, the palace is ornamented, trimmed and finished with the beautiful plumes of broom corn in such a manner as to bring out all the architectural beauty of the palace. Brush is batted on in many places to represent the appearance of large quantities of baled broom corn.

In some places, notably around the doorways, windows and porches, the green stalk of the plant is twined and intertwined in a thousand fantastic and artistic styles. The brush ranges in color from the standard and much sought after green, which is found where the sun has not shed its autumn rays upon it. But the sun is no mean painter. Where his rays have fallen the colors of the brush range from dark to light red and yellow, just as the leaves of the trees are colored by his glare.

This was dreaded by some as destroying the beauty of the palace. Instead it has heightened it. Large sections of the exterior of the palace have been decorated with the broom corn seed. This effect is obtained by covering the boards with adhesive varnish, then casting handfuls of the seed upon it. These adhere, and the effect is very pretty.

Broom corn has made the people of Arcola and surrounding country wealthy

BROOM CORN PALACE AT ARCOLA, ILLS. and happy. Something in the deep, black soil produces the best broom corn in the world, and it is always to be found there.

It was many back in 1859 that broom corn was first known in this section, though at that time only a small patch was planted as an experiment, the brush being worked up into brooms by the raisers. In 1864 Colonel John Cofer, the father of the broom corn industry in Illinois, planted and raised a patch of about 20 acres, which was made into brooms by Thomas Midwinter and shipped to the city markets for disposal, this being the first consignment of brooms ever sent to the trade from Douglas county. This practically set the pace, and the farmers gradually took up the enterprise until it has become by big odds the largest crop raised in Douglas and Coles counties.

The dangerous fluctuation in prices makes this crop, in the opinion of many who have devoted some study to it, a risky one. In 1875 the quotations reached bottom, at $40 per ton, while the highest notch was in 1865, when $300 was paid.

The product per acre is about 600 to 650 pounds, or a general average of about one ton to every three acres of corn. This is considered a good average. There have been instances where the brush would yield 900 pounds to the acre, but not often.

The most interesting as well as the busiest period in the broom corn industry is the harvest time. This occurs generally along in the latter part of August or the 1st of September and extends to about the first part of October, but this is governed altogether by the growing season; consequently there is no regular period for the harvest to open, and it varies from 10 to 15 days. As a general rule, however, Oct. 1 witnesses the end of the harvest. The work of harvesting broom corn is accomplished by hard labor from beginning to end, and the man who goes into the broom corn field to assist in the labor may expect to earn every dollar his employer has promised to give him.

Now that the citizens of Arcola have discovered that broom corn has artistic as well as financial possibilities they are talking about making the broom corn festival an annual affair, and it is probable that on the next occasion a broom corn palace of even a more pretensions character will be erected.

CYRUS SYLVESTER.

Pelican and Duck in a Duel.

In Kew gardens, in the presence of a considerable number of spectators, an affair of honor was settled between a pelican and a duck. The birds had had words together, so to speak, and the pelican determined that the next best thing to making the duck eat his words was to eat the duck. So, after a little thrust and parry on the water, he made for the smaller bird and snapped it into his pouch.

Then a battle royal began inside the pouch of the pelican. The duck struggled, kicked, quacked and occasionally managed to get a leg or a wing outside, while his captor threw his beak high in the air, then dipped it into the water, and kept it there, as if trying to enfold or drown its enemy. From the look of the agitated pouch it seemed as if the contest was by no means one sided, but that the pelican was having rather a rough time.

At last the duck got his head and one wing out, and then, with a magnificent effort, managed to get entirely free. Once again on the water, the duck declined further combat and fled, while the pelican remained, looking as if honor were thoroughly satisfied.—London Telegraph.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. J. Wood & Son, druggists, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Fed Her Husband Ground Glass.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28.—The preliminary examination of Mrs. Rodolph Sanderson, who is charged with murdering her husband, was begun at noon. Marie Robertson, the woman's servant, testified that she saw her mistress gather up bottle glass and take it to the spice mill in the cellar, saying, "Perhaps you think this awful, Marie, but I think nothing more about it than eating my breakfast." She then ground the glass, put it into the porridge which her aged husband ate. He became very sick, complained of indigestion, gradually grew worse, and there was nothing but quarrelling between them until death came.

Housekeeping.

If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman to the world. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health, in nine cases out of ten, comes from derangements of the delicate, feminine organs of generation. The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right. Except in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures safely, permanently.

CAPITAL ASSURED.

Consolidation of Tin Plate Plants Regarded as a Certainty.

Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Concerning the proposed tin plate combine, the Iron Trade Review this week says:

"Buyers of tin plate have evidently proceeded on the assumption that combination efforts cannot be brought to a successful issue.

"Yet every week brings more positive assurances from those who are close to the promoting syndicate, that arrangements have progressed so far that the consolidation is as sure as anything not positively closed can be.

"It is said in answer to the doubts expressed as to the ability of those in charge of the deal to finance it, that capital is assured in amount ample for the taking up of the options."

Violated Civil Service Laws.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Ex-Governor Charles A. Busiel of New Hampshire has preferred charges with the civil service commission against the members of the Republican state committee of New Hampshire for assessing political contribution upon federal officeholders in that state, and has written to the comptroller of the currency complaining that the First National bank of Concord is aiding and abetting the violation of the civil service law by acting as the agent of a United States official in soliciting political subscriptions from other United States officeholders.

And the Sheriff of Mason County is ordered and directed by this court to advertise said election and the object thereof for at least thirty days next before the day thereof in some newspaper having the largest circulation in the county, and also by printed handbills posted up in not less than four public places in each voting precinct in the county and at the court house door.
